FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Neighbors Helping Neighbors

(September 10, 2015 - Greer, SC) On Tuesday, September 22, Greer Relief & Resources Agency will host a Neighborhood Breakfast. The purpose of the event is to educate the community on the mission of Greer Relief and their focus on hunger and homeless prevention.

Over 200 individuals are expected to gather at the City of Greer, Cannon Centre, to learn about opportunities within Greer Relief and what it offers to the community. Breakfast is available at 7:30 a.m. and the program starts at 8 a.m.

"We want to make sure the community, our neighbors, know who we help, and how we help them." said Caroline Robertson, Executive Director of Greer Relief. "We are looking forward to showing the community how we empower our neighbors toward stability."

The breakfast has no cost to attend; however, attendees will have the opportunity to support the organization by volunteering, donating or getting involved with future events. Greer Relief board members, volunteers, supporters, and donors will speak on behalf of Greer Relief.

The Awareness Breakfast is open to the public and the media is encouraged to attend. Sign up online at http://goo.gl/LodThP, or contact Bill Roughton at bill.roughton@greerrelief.org or 864.848.5356. More information can be found at www.greerrelief.org.

Greer Relief and Resources Agency was founded in 1936 and is the oldest 501(c)3 non-profit in Greer.
